Guest: Lara Jazmin, Jennifer Goodson

Welcome – Brian Koehler, Chair

Brian Koehler welcomed the members to the meeting and all members introduced themselves. The agenda and minutes are on the CIP website and items are linked for viewing.

Minutes –

The minutes were distributed by Mazie Lewis and reviewed by the committee members.

Monthly Briefs:

Office of International Affairs – Bailian Li, Vice Provost

Office of International Services (OIS) – Michael Bustle, Director

Study Abroad Office (SAO) – Ingrid Schmidt, Director

The Global Perspective Certificate is ready for signature of the Course and Curriculum Committee. Brian Koehler signed the amendment.

Faculty Senate (Academic Policy Committee) – Mike Levy, Faculty Senate

The newsletter has gone out. There is a need for more scholarship funding.

Highlighted Programs:

NCSU Marching Band – Paul Garcia, Director

Jennifer Goodson and Lara Jazman presented slides of the band's participation in the St. Patrick Day Parade in Ireland. The students mingled with the other band members. The band won the overall Best Band of the St. Patrick Day Parade. The committee members saw other sites of the trip including beaches and mountain area. The NCSU band has 193 members.

Alumni Receptions – David Shafer, Graduate School

David Shafer goes to Thailand to recruit Royal Thai scholars. Most recent alumni info acquired to update database. The scholarship is fully funded. Turkey, Libya, and Malaysia are other countries with fully funded students. Brian Koehler shared that it was important to recruit top students from around the country.

2 – Minute Drill:

U. S Senator Paul Simon Award

Brian Koehler reported that NC State was not selected for its international campus programs. He shared the letter indicating this.

Sigma Iota Rho

Banquet was nice and good for interaction and network.

South African Delegation

Email received to solicit a family to host a South African student for 4 weeks. Contact Mike Giancola for further information.

CIP Operating Procedure Manual

The finished product (it is a working document) is on the website. The CIP Manual will be available for review by future CIP members and chairs (and hopefully updated annually).

Office of International Affairs

The Website is in early stages of production. The logo is prepared and redesigned. The database has been expanded and the Study Abroad essay will be shared. Each college has page and will link back to the university main page.

Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.
